On 5/07/2006, at approximately 02:01 hours, Officer Bagley was on routine patrol in the parking lot of 4060 Beltline Rd, Papas Pizza.

Officer Bagley observed a white male subject, later identified as Anthony Brown. Brown was approximately 6'1" and 200 pounds and was wearing denim shorts and a sports jersey. Brown was speaking with two females and one male in the east side of the parking lot. Witnesses in the parking lot flagged Officer Bagley down and told him Brown had been inside the business acting weird and that guy is on something.

Officer Bagley approached Brown and attempted to speak with him. Brown pushed Ofc. Bagley and ran yelling and screaming northbound toward Beltline Rd. Officer Bagley stated he caught Brown and Brown began to fight. Brown struck Officer Bagley several times and was able to get away. Officer Bagley caught Brown in the outside lane of Beltline Rd. And grabbed Brown around his chest and shoulder. Brown continued to fight Officer Bagley and began flailing around and screaming in an attempt to get away.

Brown continued to struggle. Officer Bagley released his hold and radioed for assistance. Officer Bagley was able to regain control over Brown and was assisted by two citizens who had stopped to help. Brown continued to fight Officer Bagley and the two citizens.
